CASE Study

New Build Aeration Tanks

Our client, a food processor in the poultry sector required UKSE's expertise to deliver the complete fit out of new aeration tanks at one of their processing plants in Thorne.

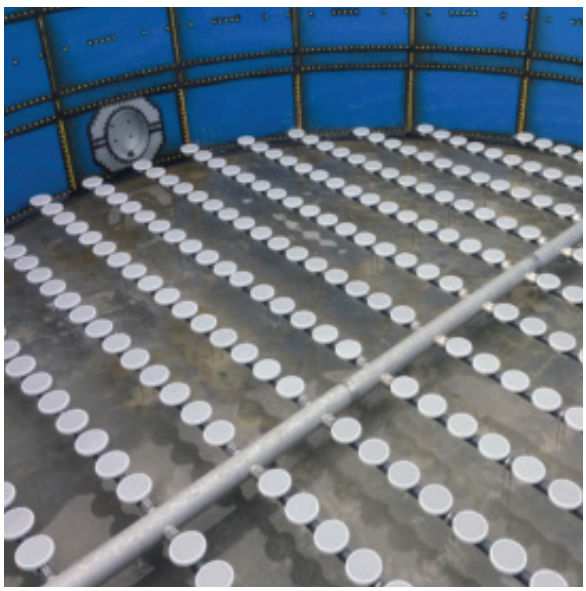

UKSE group provided experienced and qualified site supervision and mechanical fitters to fit out the aeration tanks. The team wee required to install pipework, pumps, valves, disc diffusers, mixes and install steel access platforms.

Full site welfare, tooling and vans were provided to assist with the smooth running of the project.
